

Dear editor:

Thank you for your email.

We have asked Dr. Ruoning Wang to improve the language in this manuscript. Dr. Ruoning Wang has a very strong academic background in the area of biomedical research. In 2007, Dr. Wang obtained his Ph.D. degree in Biomedical Science from the Graduate School of Biomedical Science at the MD Anderson Cancer Center in the United States, where he earned his well-recognized reputation in the cell cycle field. Because of his remarkable accomplishments, Dr. Wang was recruited to the St Jude Children's Research Hospital in February 2008. He worked with Professor Green, a world-renowned scientist, and has focused his research on lymphocytes metabolism and proliferation. Dr. Wang's publication record speaks for itself. He has published many papers in prestigious international journals, including CELL, PNAS, CELL METAB, IMMUNITY, etc.

We are confident that the English language in the current manuscript can meet the standard of the journal.

We are looking forward to hearing from you in due course.

Sincerely yours,
