Manuscript may be accepted after minor polishing of the language.

- The language has been polished.

In your article, there are many no relevant parts, for example, the complete physical examination, that I mean that you have to include just the principal and most relevant facts of the case. I invite you to review the article and improve the redaction because the clinical case is very interesting.

- Have delete some no relevant parts, and improve the redaction. But some parts are essential content of the article, such as physical examination.

Dear Reviewers:

I have reviewed and revised my manuscript according to your requirements. Thank you very much for your comments.

Thank you!
