This is to certify that the manuscript by LI et al., titled "Postoperative Adjuvant Therapy for Hepatocellular Carcinoma with Microvascular Invasion", has undergone professional English text correction by our company.

Based on our experience, including publications in high-impact journals such as Nucleic Acids Research, Green Chemistry, Cell Reports, and Nature Communications, among many others, the manuscript's English language is now fit for publication in a scientific journal, assuming the authors have accepted all the language changes as proposed, and if the reviewers and editor have positively judged its scientific merit.

Certificate issued by:
