SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The overall manuscript is coherent and well organized, but the result part was mixed up wrongly with the method, so there aren't any results, and the flowchart also needs to move to the method part. The tables are well, but the figures , especially the third one, are not of good quality and won't make readers understand the idea behind them. The conclusion is also not supported and needs to rewrite and add the whole concept with a more robust description. Generally, I think the title and notion of this manuscript are good, and tables are acceptable. Still, the way this article is written is not supportive it and not attractive for readers, and significant changes are required to meet the criteria for publication.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The introduction is overly long and disorganized, and the core tip is inadequate. The article's discussion section is unsupportive, the references it uses are not entirely logical, and it lacks any unique ideas.
