Point 1: English editing is needed through all the manuscript

Response: Thank you for your comment. The manuscript has been polished for language by a professional editing service company.

Point 2: The authors must define each abbreviation before its first use in the text

Response: we listed all the abbreviations in text.

Point 3: Abstract: The authors should elaborate a short coherent abstract respecting the order of CARE checklist: Don't separate sentences with titles (Patient concerns, Interventions, Diagnosis...)

Response: Thank you for your comment. We rewrote part of abstract.

Point 4. Key words: use MeSH terms

Response: Thank you for your comment. We have rewrite our key words.

Point 5. Introduction: References should be reordered The years of these percentages must be indicated: incidence.. 3.7 to 7.2%... Define the abbreviation of CT

Response: the references has been reordered, and CT abbreviation was defined.

Point 6. Case presentation: Define the abbreviation of MRI

Response: MRI was defined.

Point 7. The authors should respect this order to describe the case: Patient information including past history / Clinical Findings/ Diagnostic Assessment/ Therapeutic Intervention/ Follow-up and Outcomes

Response: the case presentation has moderated the order.

Point 8. Assessing the case presentation objectively avoids emotions: Unfortunately!
