INTERNATIONAL AGENCY FOR RESEARCH ON CANCER (IARC/WHO) Non-exclusive licence to use selected IARC/WHO published materials

You submitted a request, through IARC/WHO’s online platform, for permission to reprint and reproduce certain IARC/WHO copyrighted material (the “Licensed Materials”). This is a legal agreement (the “Agreement”) between you and IARC/WHO, granting you a licence to use the Licensed Materials subject to the terms and conditions herein.

Read this Agreement in its entirety before using the Licensed Materials.

By using the Licensed Materials, you enter into, and agree to be bound by, this Agreement.

This licence is granted only for original materials belonging to IARC/WHO. If any part of the IARC/WHO published materials you wish to reproduce are credited by IARC/WHO to a source other than IARC/WHO, those materials are not covered by this Agreement and are not part of the Licensed Materials. You are responsible for determining if this is the case, and if so, you are responsible for obtaining any necessary permission from the source of those third-party materials prior to their use.

If you enter into this Agreement on behalf of an organization, by using the Licensed Materials you confirm (represent and warrant) that you are authorized by your organization to enter into this Agreement on the organization's behalf. In such a case, the terms "you" and "your" in this Agreement refer to, and this Agreement applies to, the organization.

IARC/WHO grants this licence to you based on the representations and warranties you made in the licence request you submitted through IARC/WHO's online platform. If any of those representations and/or warranties are or become false or inaccurate, this licence agreement shall automatically terminate with immediate effect, without prejudice to any other remedies which IARC/WHO may have.

If you have questions regarding this Agreement, please contact publications@iarc.fr.

This licence is limited to the current edition of your publication. Future editions or a different use of the Licensed Materials will require additional permission from IARC/WHO. If your request includes translation into different languages, then non-exclusive permission is hereby granted to translate the Licensed Materials into the languages indicated.

2. Retained Rights. Copyright in the Licensed Materials remains vested in IARC/WHO, and IARC/WHO retains all rights not specifically granted under this Agreement.

3. Mandatory Acknowledgement. In every instance of the Licensed Use, you must make suitable acknowledgement of IARC/WHO, either as a footnote or in a reference list at the end of your publication, as follows:

In the event of any inconsistency between the English and the insert language translation, the original English version shall be the binding and authentic version."

4. Altering or Modifying the Licensed Materials. As part of the Licensed Use, you may minimally alter or adapt figures and tables in the Licensed Materials to match the style of your publication. Any other alteration or modification of the Licensed Materials (including abbreviations, additions, or deletions) may be made only with the prior written authorization of IARC/WHO.

5. Appropriate and Prohibited Uses. You must use the Licensed Materials in a factual and appropriate context. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the IARC/WHO name and/or emblem appear as an integral part of the Licensed Materials (e.g. on a map) you may use the name and/or emblem in your use of the Licensed Materials, provided the name and/or logo is not used separately from the Licensed Materials.

8. No Warranties by IARC/WHO. All reasonable precautions have been taken by IARC/WHO to verify the information contained in the Licensed Materials. However, IARC/WHO provides the Licensed Materials to you without warranty of any kind, either expressed or implied, and you are entirely responsible for your use of the Licensed Materials. Subject: Copyright Permission Request Form could not be submitted, please help me with it!

Dear IARC Publications,

I'm sorry to write this email and bother you because I could not submit the "Copyright Permission Request Form" on the IARC website (<https://publications.iarc.fr/Copyright-Request-Form>). I need your help.

I'm submitting a manuscript for peer review in World Journal of Gastroenterology. The submission guideline of the journal indicates that if an author of a submission is re-using a figure or figures published elsewhere, or that is copyrighted, the author must provide documentation that the previous publisher or copyright holder has given permission for the figure to be re-published; and correctly indicating the reference source and copyrights. We've already cited the related information from GLOBOCAN website in our manuscript, however a permission is also needed. Therefore we are completing the online request form. However, we could not submit this Copyright Permission Request Form because it always says Please fill the antispam before submitting your form. Most importantly, we could not find a related link to fill this antispam. The completed form of our application in this website was downloaded as a PDF and attached here for your reference.

Could you please help me with this issue and give us the permission to use some data and images on the website? Looking forward to hearing from you! Thank you so much!

Sincerely,

Jing Lv
