

CERTIFICATE OF ENGLISH EDITING

To whom so ever it may concern

This is to certify that the manuscript titled 'Liver injury from direct oral anticoagulants - A meta-summary of case reports and series', written by the authors, Deven Juneja, Prashant Nasa and Ravi Jain has been corrected in terms of spelling, hyphenation, punctuation, numerals, abbreviation-capitalization, subject-verb agreement and tense-voice patterns. Further, the statements have been edited to improve the flow of the research content. During the editing process, neither the research content nor the authors' intentions were altered in any way, provided our editor's changes are accepted and further changes made to the paper are checked by our editor.

We wish the authors, a great and successful career ahead.
