

Informed consent form

All subjects and investigators signed an informed consent form, but since the informed consent form contained the contact information of the participant, most participants did not want their privacy to be provided to other organizations, so we could not complete this requirement.