JOURNAL EDITOR-IN-CHIEF (ASSOCIATE EDITOR) COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

As per my observation, one one one reviewer submitted a brief report when another reviewer did not make any comments rather than selecting the options from the drop down menu or bullet points. While I was going through the manuscript, I found a number of errors. I suggest you to send this manuscript to at least another reviewer, particularly an expert in the area of diabetes and who does diabetes research using animals with molecular studies. Once you get the report, please send the manuscript back to me to make a final decision. Regards, Prof. Islam
