TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I, Margery J. Galbraith, a native English speaker residing in Brazil since 1974, have been involved in the translation of a wide range of technical documents since 1979, and in review and translation of scientific articles related to dentistry and medicine since 1982. Furthermore, I declare that I am a full partner and co-director of Galbraith Comunicações Ltda, and apart from my company activities, I work as a freelance translator.

I hereby certify that I have reviewed the English language in the article entitled "Exercise Training in Hypertension: role of microRNAs" at the request of Prof. Prof. Vander José das Neves, PhD., Laboratory of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology of Exercise, School of Physical Education and Sport, University of São Paulo, São Paulo, Brazil. Any changes made to the manuscript after this revision will be for the authors' responsibility.
