

I, Henry Dan Kiyomoto, Physical Therapist, Professor Assistant of Centro Universitário das Américas in Biostatistics and Epidemiology classes, and professor invited by the Instituto de Ortopedia e Traumatologia da Universidade de São Paulo (USP) in Aplicação da Metodologia Científica na Pesquisa do Aparelho Locomotor classes (program code MOT5742) with the Ph.D. degree by Faculdade de Medicina da USP through the Preventive Medicine program, certifies that the statistical analysis of article entitled:

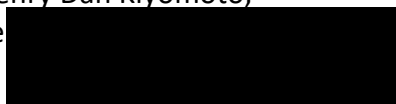

“The importance of tomography in posterior malleolar fractures: added information to preoperative X-ray studies”

This letter is to confirm that I have contributed in the statistics analysis and that I have revised the ethics application of this study, and that in my opinion the statistical methods and techniques mentioned are appropriate for the research. His certificate is delivered to the concerned person for any proposed for which it may be required.

Sincerely,

Name: Henry Dan Kiyomoto,

Signature

Contact information: henrydan@alumni.usp.br;
henry.kiyomoto@portalamericas.com.br

FAM

USP Universidade de São Paulo
Brasil