

Informed consent statement

Due to the retrospective study design, the need for written, informed patient consent was waived by the hospital ethics committee.