Editorial Office's Comments

Science Editor: -----1. Regarding the figures: Please provide the decomposable figure of figures, whose parts are all movable and editable, organize them into a PowerPoint file, and submit as "Manuscript No. -Figures.ppt" on the system, we need to edit the words in the figures. All submitted figures, including the text contained within the figures, must be editable. Please provide the text in your figure(s) in text boxes. Please read these four important guidelines carefully and modify your figure(s) accordingly: First, all submitted figures, including the text contained within the figures, must be editable. Please provide the text in your figure(s) in text boxes. Second, for line drawings that were automatically generated with software, please provide the labels/values of the ordinate and abscissa in text boxes. Third, please prepare and arrange the figures using PowerPoint to ensure that all graphs or text portions can be reprocessed by the editor. Forth, in order to respect and protect the author's intellectual property rights and prevent others from misappropriating figures without the author's authorization or abusing figures without indicating the source, we will indicate the author's copyright for figures originally generated by the author, and if the author has used a figure published elsewhere or that is copyrighted, the author needs to be authorized by the previous publisher or the copyright holder and/or indicate the reference source and copyrights. Please check and confirm whether the figures are original (i.e. generated de novo by the Zhong Ren and Shi-Lun Cai) have yet to confirm their online copyright agreements. We have sent a Copyright License Agreement link to them, please click on the link in the email to sign the online Copyright License Agreement. If you do not receive the email or have other questions, please contact c.lin@wjgnet.com for assistance. ----3. Regarding the manuscript: We have annotated the manuscript for problematic places. Please download the manuscript in the attachment and make corrections. Please do not turn off revision mode when making changes, thank you.

Company Editor-in-Chief: I recommend the manuscript to be published in the World Journal of Gastrointestinal Oncology. 请您 补充内镜下的照片。这个很重要。其次,我转发给您的约稿邮件没有 收到回复。马连生 Before final acceptance, when revising the manuscript, the author must supplement and improve the highlights of the latest cutting-edge research results, thereby further improving the content of the manuscript. To this end, authors are advised to apply a new tool, the Reference Citation Analysis (RCA). RCA is an artificial intelligence technology-based open multidisciplinary citation analysis database. In it, upon obtaining search results from the keywords entered by the author, "Impact Index Per Article" under "Ranked by" should be selected to find the

The title concisely summarizes the main topic of the study and is not too long (no more than 18 words). Words such as 'exploration', 'research', 'analysis', 'observation', and 'investigation' are avoided. The title does not start with 'The' and does not include any Arabic numbers or uncommon abbreviations.  5 A short running title is provided (no more than 6 words).  The authors' full family (sur)names and full/abbreviated first names are listed on the title page and are consistent with those listed in the signed BPG Copyright License Agreement form.  The 'Author contributions' passage describes the specific contribution(s) made by each author. The author's names are listed in the following format: full family (sur)name followed by abbreviated first and middles names.  e.g., "Wang CL and Liang L contributed equally to this work; Wang CL, Liang L, Fu JF, Zou CC, Hong F and Wu XM designed the research study; Wang CL, Zou CC, Hong F and Wu XM performed the research; Xue JZ and Lu JR contributed new reagents and analytic tools; Wang CL, Liang L and Fu JF wrote the manuscript. |    | The 'Core tip' provides a summary (less than 100 words) of the             |     |
| 14 | study that outlines the most innovative and important arguments            | [V] |
| 14 | and core contents of the paper and will serve to effectively attract       | [Y] |
|    | readers.   |     |
|    | The 'INTRODUCTION' section clearly describes the relevant                  |     |
|    | background information for the study. Only the most relevant and           |     |
|    | current (within the past 5 years) literature is cited, with the            |     |
|    | exception of rare instances of seminal literature citations. All           |     |
|    | technical terms and/or abbreviations are explained and/or defined,         |     |
|    | with the full name of abbreviations given upon first appearance in         |     |
| 15 | the text and the abbreviation presented in parentheses [i.e.,              | [Y] |
|    | "computed tomography (CT)"]. First-person pronouns (e.g., 'I',             |     |
|    | 'we') are used appropriately to clearly indicate the work performed        |     |
|    | by the author(s). When weaknesses of previous studies are                  |     |
|    | described in the text to highlight the innovations related to the          |     |
|    | current study, the information is presented carefully.                     |     |
|    |  |     |
|    | The 'MATERIALS AND METHODS' section clearly and accurately                 |     |
| 16 | describes all materials and methods used to obtain the data                | [Y] |
|    | presented in the article and is adequate for a reader to repeat the        |     |
|    | study.   |     |
|    | The 'RESULTS' section concisely describes the observational and            |     |
|    | experimental results. Representative data and data that have               |     |
|    | scientific significance are emphasized. Data is presented in either        |     |
| 17 | the text, a table or figure (i.e., chart, diagram, graph or image), but is | [Y] |
|    | not repeated among each. Information presented in the tables and           |     |
|    | figures clearly describes the trends, meaning, and inferences.             |     |
|    | Results described in textual form are accurate, concise and clear.         |     |

|    | as ${}^{a}P$ < 0.05, ${}^{b}P$ < 0.01 ( $P$ > 0.05 usually does not need to be denoted).    |       |
| 18 | If there are other series of $P$ values, $^{c}P < 0.05$ and $^{d}P < 0.01$ are used,        | [Y]   |
|    | and a third series of $P$ values is expressed as $^{\rm e}P$ < 0.05 and $^{\rm f}P$ < 0.01. |       |

| 40 | the data) and draws conclusions or inferences based on the results;                         |       |
| 19 | (4) points out the limitations of the study and their impact on the                         | [Y]   |
|    | results, as well as proposes further advice on future research                              |       |
|    | topic(s) or direction(s); and (5) describes the theoretical significance                    |       |
|    | and practical value of the findings.  |       |
|    | The 'ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS' section expresses gratitude to any                                   |       |
|    | individuals or organizations for technical support (i.e., providing                         |       |

| 21 | original articles in accordance with the specified format.                                  | [Y]   |
|    | The 'REFERENCES' section lists the references in the Vancouver                              |       |
| 22 | style. This style uses Arabic numeral in-text citations based on the                        |       |
|    | order of the first appearance of a source in the text. For citations                        |       |
|    | where the author's name is indicated in the text, a superscript                             |       |
|    | number should be placed following the name (i.e, "Pang et al"). For                         | [Y]   |
|    | citations where no author is indicated, a superscript number should                         |       |
