CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that the manuscript entitled “Back to the future: how to proceed in a patient with end-stage carcinoid heart disease of an unknown primary tumor?” (NO: 88901) by Nikola Bulj et al. has been language edited in English by a native English speaker.

I was born in Chicago, Illinois, USA, and completed my elementary, high school and university degree schooling there. I have received a Bachelor of Sciences degree in 1992 from University of Illinois, USA. From 1993 until 2000, I completed my medical education at the University of Zagreb, Croatia, as well as my specialty training in Anesthesiology, Resuscitation, and Intensive Care Medicine, completed in 2010. I have worked for many years at Clinical Hospital Center Zagreb until 2015. Following my tenure there, I worked for three and a half years in Dumfries and Galloway, Edinburgh, Scotland and the Isle of Wight, England. My present position is Senior Anesthesiologist at Poliklinika Bagatin, a private plastic surgery and esthetic clinic in Zagreb, Croatia.

I have written, lectured, and published over 50 original scientific papers, reviews, conference, and departmental presentations in the English and Croatian languages. I am also an instructor of the ALSG Manchester Group offering APLS, ALS, BLS, MIMMS training for foreigners and domestic medical and non-medical employees. The courses are held in English here in Croatia and abroad.

Please feel to contact me in case you need any further information.

Kind Regards,

Judith Deutsch
