	Authors are required to provide standard three-line tables, that is, only the top line, bottom line, and column line are displayed, while other table lines are hidden. The contents of each cell in the table should conform to the editing specifications, and the lines of each row or column of the table should be aligned. Do not use carriage author(s) must include the keywords "stress response", "anxiety",

	"cognitive function", etc., in the keyword list.
3	The fixed headings are copied.	[Y]
	The title concisely summarizes the main topic of the study and is not too long (no more than 18 words). Words such as 'exploration',

	The title does not start with 'The' and does not include any Arabic numbers or uncommon abbreviations.
5	A short running title is provided (no more than 6 words).	[Y]
	The authors' full family (sur)names and full/abbreviated first
6	names are listed on the title page and are consistent with those	[Y]
	listed in the signed BPG Copyright License Agreement form.
	The 'Author contributions' passage describes the specific contribution(s) made by each author. The author's names are listed in the following format: full family (sur)name followed by

8	The 'Supported by' statement describes the source(s) of financial support and includes the corresponding identification number(s) and program ID(s) if available, and contains no spelling errors.	[N]
9	The 'Corresponding author' passage provides the corresponding author's full first and family (sur)names, abbreviated title (e.g. , MD, PhD), affiliated institute's name and complete postal address (including zip code) and e-mail (written in all lowercase), and contains no spelling errors. 16	The 'MATERIALS AND METHODS' section clearly and accurately
	describes all materials and methods used to obtain the data	[Y] presented in the article and is adequate for a reader to repeat the study.
	The 'RESULTS' section concisely describes the observational and experimental results. Representative data and data that have scientific significance are emphasized. Data is presented in either 17	the text, a table or figure (i.e. , chart, diagram, graph or image), but is	[Y]

	figures clearly describes the trends, meaning, and inferences.
	Results described in textual form are accurate, concise and clear.
	Statistical symbols are accurate. Statistical significance is expressed as ${}^{a}P < 0.05$, ${}^{b}P < 0.01$ ($P > 0.05$ usually does not need to be denoted).
18	If there are other series of P values, $cP < 0.05$ and $dP < 0.01$ are used,	[Y]
	and a third series of P values is expressed as ${}^{e}P < 0.05$ and ${}^{f}P < 0.01$.
	Statistical data is expressed as mean \pm SD or mean \pm SE.
	The 'DISCUSSION' section (1) describes the main purpose and hypothesis of the study; (2) summarizes the most important results;
	(3) illustrates and explains the results (but does not simply repeat
10	the data) and draws conclusions or inferences based on the results;
19	(4) points out the limitations of the study and their impact on the	[Y]
	results, as well as proposes further advice on future research topic(s) or direction(s); and (5) describes the theoretical significance and practical value of the findings.
20	The 'ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS' section expresses gratitude to any individuals or organizations for technical support (i.e., providing	[N] instrumentation, equipment or experimental materials, and/or 21 The 'ARTICLE HIGHLIGHTS' section provides comments for original articles in accordance with the specified format. [Y] 21 The 'REFERENCES' section lists the references in the Vancouver style. This style uses Arabic numeral in-text citations based on the order of the first appearance of a source in the text. For citations where the author's name is indicated in the text, a superscript number should be placed following the name (i.e., "Pang et al"). For citations where no author is indicated, a superscript number should be placed at the end of the sentence. Respective examples are: "Ma ^{D1} reported", "Pan et al ^{D2-0}] indicated", "PCR has a high sensitivity ^{40,0} ." No superscript numbers are used when the reference number is described in the text; for example, "The experimental method used has been described in reference [8]." The style of reference citations in tables is the same as that in the text (e.g., Pan et al ^{D2-0}), please see reference [8]. For references not yet included in PubMed: the name of Chinese journals is spelled out using Chinese Pinyin, with the first letter of each word capitalized (e.g., Shijie Huaren Xiaohua Zazhi); the name of journals in other languages are listed according to indexing information relevant to the electronic version.
