SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

It was a specific study. Although I have no experience on the subject, I gained new information as I read. I believe that it will contribute to the literature and be useful to the reader. Briefly; There are differences in the LncRNA software in the article (lncrna ? etc...). It will be more understandable if they are all in the same format (LncRNA). Many abbreviations have been used without open software. I especially recommend that the words mentioned in the text be used with their abbreviations at the first mention.
