To whomever it may concern

I, Dr. Ashu Seith Bhalla, certify that I have bilingual proficiency in English and Hindi. I am the corresponding author for the manuscript titled "Characterization of Tumors of Jaw: Additive Value of Contrast Enhancement and Dual-energy Computed Tomography" (Manuscript no: 90489), which is under consideration for publication in your journal. I am currently affiliated with the Department of Radiodiagnosis and Interventional Radiology, All India Institute of Medical Sciences, in the position of Professor, and I have more than 400 publications in indexed English journals. My medium of education since schooling, including medical school and residency, has been in the English language. I have proofread the manuscript after editing, and I am satisfied with the language and believe that no further language polishing is required. The edit has achieved Grade A: priority publishing; no language polishing is required after editing.
