

Dear Editors,

We are very grateful to the reviewers and editors for your encouragement of our research and comments, and we have scrutinized reviewed the manuscript and revised it point-by-point to address the comments.

1. Reviewer 1# comments

Response: Thank you for your suggestions on our research, we have polished the language and made minor revisions to the manuscript.

2. Reviewer 2# comments

Q1: The manuscript requires a minor editing.

Response: We have made minor revisions to the manuscript.

Q2: The limit of the study should be discussed.

Response: We have supplemented the limitations of the study and the focus of future research.

Q3: A short background should be added to the abstract.

Response: We have supplemented the background of the study

Q4: The title of the study should be shortened.

Response: We revised the title to within 18 words.

Q5: References list should be edited according to the journal' s guideline.

Response: We standardize references according to journal's guideline.

3. Science editor and Company editor-in-chief comments

Response: We revised the title to within 18 words and modified the three-line tables. In addition, we have added and revised the content of the manuscript according to the journal guidelines and requirements.

We appreciated for editors' and reviewers' warm work earnestly, and hope that the revised manuscript will meet with approval.

Thank you and best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Yanli Wang