

Informed consent statement: All study participants were informed about the purpose of the study verbally and in writing. Submission of a completed survey constituted informed consent to participate in the study.