

Five of the authors incl. the two who mainly conducted the analyses (Frauke Schultze-Lutter and Chantal Michel) are trained as psychologists and thereby in biostatistics. For this reason, an additional biostatistics review certificate had already been waived for an earlier paper (doi: 10.5498/wjp.v10.i5.0000; see next page) for that the same authors had conducted the biostatistical analyses.

Dear Author,

Thank you for getting in touch.

We have changed the column into “Observational Study” and the biostatistic certificate can be waived.

Best regards,
