Dear Sir,

The manuscript entitled "SARS-CoV-2-Induced Liver Injury: A Review Article on The High-Risk Populations, Manifestations, Mechanisms, Pathological Changes, Management, and Outcomes" has been read and copyedited by one of our colleagues in the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Associate Professor Dr Fatimah Ahmedy.

Associate Professor Dr Fatimah Ahmedy was educated in the University of Wales, Cardiff, United Kingdom for five years, from 2001 to 2006, and after that has worked in Wales for another five years from 2006 to 2011. She is currently an associate professor and the deputy dean of research and innovation in the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, Universiti Malaysia Sabah, and has written and published multiple original scientific papers, reviews and book chapters in English language.
