COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors have written an interesting paper regarding the role of Anti PD-1/anti PD-L1 in digestive cancers. Overall the paper is quite educative giving new information regarding innovating therapies for diverse digestive tumors involving the immune system. Nevertheless, the paper seems to be unstructured missing subsections such as introduction; materials and methods; results and conclusion. I believe that merits to be published in WJGO making some minor additions-corrections in paper's structure as above mentioned.
