Practice guidelines for the <sup>11</sup>pathological diagnosis of primary liver cancer: 2015 update

Chinese Society of Liver Cancer et al. Pathological guidelines of primary liver cancer

Abstract

In 2010, a panel of Chinese pathologists reported the first expert consensus for the pathological diagnosis of primary liver cancers (PLC) to address the many contradictions and inconsistencies in the pathological characteristics and diagnostic criteria for PLC. Since then considerable clinicopathological studies have been conducted globally, prompting us to update the practice guidelines for the pathological diagnosis of PLC. In April 18, 2014, an Expert Committee consisting of
