

Informed Consent Statement

The clinical data utilized in this study is de-identified and was obtained from a publicly available database. Therefore, informed consent was not required for this study.