COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This article is a well-written review regarding the usefulness of laparoscopic liver resection, referring the implication for living donor hepatectomy. 1) There are not a few careless mistakes including no space before parenthesis. 2) The form of the Tables is inconsistent. 3) Table 1, 2, and 3 follow Table 4.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

good work written in good language with full coverage of the whole scope of laparoscopic hepatic surgery. my only comment is that the paper is too long for an article and conclusions are divided after each part. please concise the paper and make one conclusion at the end of the paper.
