

Specific Comments To Authors:

Title: Endoscopic management of Biliary ascariasis : A case report and literature review Manuscript ID: 65369

1. Title. Title reflect the main subject of the manuscript.
- 2 Abstract. Abstract summarize and reflect the work described in the manuscript.
- 3 Key words. Key words reflect the focus of the manuscript.
- 4 Background. Manuscript adequately describe the background, present status and significance of the case report.
- 5 Methods. Manuscript describe methods in adequate detail.
- 6 Results. Case reports rare case of biliary ascariasis with treatment proposal.
- 7 Discussion. Authors interpret the findings adequately, highlighting the key points concisely, reporting a case of biliary ascariasis in order to raise awareness of possible parasitic infections in remote areas and those with poor medical conditions.
- 8 Illustrations and tables. Figures are in good quality and appropriately illustrative of the paper contents.
- 9 Biostatistics. U/A
- 10 Units. Manuscript meet the requirements of use of SI units.
- 11 References. Manuscript cite appropriately important and authoritative references in the introduction and discussion sections.
- 12 Quality of manuscript organization and presentation. Manuscript is well and coherently organized and presented. Style, language and grammar needs to be written more precisely and accurately.
- 13 Research methods and reporting. Authors prepared the manuscript according to the appropriate research methods,
- 14 Ethics statements. U/A

Thanks for your comment

The following documents have no Doi.

Reference number	Literature title	PMID
2	A case of biliary ascariasis	24979844
8	Biliary ascariasis in a 6-month old child	27418801
9	Ascaridial Volvulus: An Uncommon Cause of	30046214

	Ileal Perforation
10	HEPATOBIILIARY ASCARIASIS COMPLICATED BY PANCREATITIS	26411145