25th March 2019.

Dear Sir/Madam,

As a native English speaker, I have been asked to check the language content of a manuscript submitted for publication in the journal 'World journal of Stem Cells'.

I confirm that I am indeed a native English speaker, residing in Manchester, England and am employed by Manchester University, but have no affiliation with any professional editing organisation.

I am pleased to confirm that, having read the manuscript entitled 'Enhancing osteogenic potential of mesenchymal stem cells; The holy grail of bone tissue regeneration?', the language content is of a very high standard and suitable for publication.

If you need any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind Regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'B. Hodgson', with a stylized, cursive script.
