

Prior to 2004 no informed consent was required in line with the ethical permission of the study (MREC/02/26). Following review from PIAG in 2004, written consent for use of clinical and demographic data was obtained from all patients at the point of registration with UKBOR.