COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear Authors, you had better put more schematic figures for every procedure. Sincerely

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors have presented a well written review on approaches to endoscopic biliary intervention in patients with surgically altered gastroduodenal anatomy. The paper would be enhanced by a few simple line drawings demonstrating these various approaches.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is a very good review. It summarized the endoscopic approaches to perform ERCP in patients with surgically altered gastroduodenal anatomy and attracted our endoscopist-readers. I am very glad to recommend its acceptance by the journal.
