

Dear Editor,

I am writing to you to inform you that I have proofread this manuscript “Diverting colostomy is an effective and reversible procedure for severe hemorrhagic radiation proctopathy” by Dr. Yuan, et al. The language content has reached Grade A. In this case, the required certification from a professional editing company can be waived.

Sincerely
