

Proofreading & Editing Certificate

This document certifies that the following document was proofread and edited by TrueEditors.

The document was edited for proper English language, grammar, punctuation, spelling, and overall style by one or more of our academic editors.

The editor endeavoured to ensure that the author's intended meaning was not altered during the review. All amendments were tracked with the Microsoft Word 'Track Changes' feature. Therefore the authors had the option to reject or accept each change individually.

TrueEditors is a registered company headquartered in London with a global presence. All of our editors are native speakers from the USA and the UK.
