COMMENTS

CONFIDENTIAL COMMENTS TO EDITOR:

Paper is a combination of obesity pathophysiology as it relates to co-morbidities and author's opinions....additional data in the last 2 pages of the paper would improve weight of the paper...

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS:

Well-written mini-review. 1. How would you incorporate traditional medicine with preventive? What ideas do you have for all health care providers? 2. Any data about outcomes with balance as the therapy? other than stating that's how its been for thousands of years..while compelling...we are living in a different world and any outcomes data or cost data would help the review.
