COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

A few queries have arisen, for which the above paper requires minor revision. 1. Results: "-PRGF, among 22 articles...." . Please check the number of the articles, as these do not match the total number (22). 2. Results: "PRF: as regards the use of PRF in dentistry..." . Please check again the number of the articles, as these do not much the total number (99). 3. Introduction: In the 3rd line: "...,which involves different elements and and which is implemented..." The sentence needs language correction. In the 7th and 8th line:"...for reconstruction of bony defects of the upper and lower maxilla..." The term "maxilla" usually means the upper jaw. (The Glossary of Prosthodontics Terms, 6th ed. Mosby) 4. Discussion: Please emphasize the relevance to the general dentist (If there is)

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

PLATELET PREPARATION IN DENTISTRY: WHY, WHERE, WHEN. It is well written and I think that proper methods have been used for the evaluation. It has some minor comments Conclusion: an evidence of beneficial effects of PRP, PRF, PRGF and CGF in regeneration of bone and soft tissues was reported in several studies. The authors should review the design of their study. The aims of this narrative review It should identify and describe the study design, Exclusion criteria must be added The language of the revision only in English? Please if studies RTC, cases control...
