

Reasons for exemption from research ethics

The Korea National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey (KNHANES, 2015) is a research ethics review that corresponds to research conducted by the government for public welfare in accordance with Article 2, Paragraph 1 of the Bioethics Act and Article 2, Paragraph 1 of the Enforcement Rule of the same Act. Conducted without deliberation by the committee.

Korea Center for Disease Control