COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Excellent work according to the teaching technique. Very good use of english grammar and terms. maybe you can add one more image showing the absence of the sphenoid sinus and some other differences between humans and quadrupeds

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

I read the manuscript named "Lamb's head: the best model for novices education in endoscopic sinus and skull base surgical skills before starting human cadaveric dissections". (ESPS Manuscript NO: 18520). I read the manuscript and my recommendations are as follows; 1. The importance of the research contents; The subject of the manuscript is very important for learning and training the endonasal endoscopic sinus and skull base surgery techniques. 2. The novelty and innovation of the research; This study gives some new knowledge to the literature. 3. Presentation and readability of the manuscript; The presentation of the study is very good. This manuscript is readable and worth to be published in World Journal of Methodology.
