SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is an interesting case report and literature review about parotid mammary analogue secretory carcinoma. Minor concerns have been raised: 1. The manuscript lacking the core tip section and writing should follow the journal style especially in the references section. 2. In the management section, the authors should consider surgical approach for parotidectomy. In addition, macroscopic and microscopic analysis should be described under different subtitle. 3. Figure three legend should be rewritten to be more appropriate for easy understanding. 4. Minor language editing is recommended.
