

Informed consent statement

We did not obtain individual informed consent. We used current hospital medical files. All of the data presented were anonymized, and the chance of patient identification was extremely low.