Dear editors,

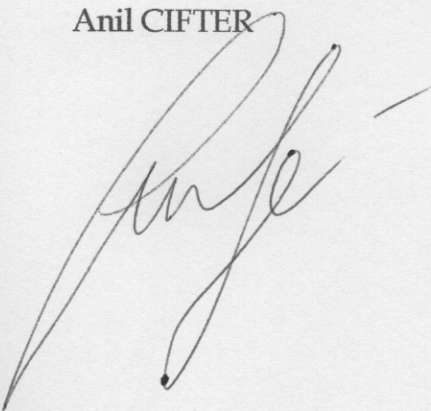

Hereby I, as the corresponding author of the article, declare that the statistical analyses of this study were done by the researchers and each statistical test was checked on the SPSS Programme at least twice.

Anil Cifter took many biostatistical courses during his medical education and took part in the statistical analysis of other studies in public health and psychiatry.

Ayse Burcu Erdogan, Assoc. Prof., has attended many biostatistics courses both internally and externally throughout her academic life. Also, she has published many international articles on child and adolescent psychiatry, including in SCI indexed journals.

Best regards,

Anil CIFTER
