

Step 6: Academic rules and norms. Authors, editors and publishers all have ethical obligations with regard to the publication of research results. In accordance with these academic rules and norms, the corresponding author must provide an honest Yes or No answer to each of the questions listed below, prior to manuscript submission. For all questions with a 'Yes' response, the authors must upload a copy of the corresponding approval document(s)/letter(s) of confirmation and/or a copy of signed statement in PDF format.

1 Does your manuscript contain the institutional review board statement in the main text?

- No

-

2 Does your manuscript contain the informed consent statement in the main text?

- No

3 Does your manuscript contain the clinical trial registration statement in the main text?

- No

4 Does your manuscript contain the institutional animal care and use committee statement in the main text?

- No

5 Does your manuscript contain the animal care and use statement in the main text?

- No

6 Does your manuscript contain the biostatistics statement in the main text?

- No

7 Does your manuscript contain the data sharing statement in the main text?

- No

8 Does your manuscript contain the conflict-of-interest statement in the main text?

- Yes

Conflict-of-interest statement: The authors have no conflict of interest to this manuscript entitled 'Role of targeted therapy in metastatic colorectal cancer', manuscript ID. 25905.

Name: Yasuhito Oikawa Date: 20/ Jun / 2016