Very well written manuscript, with exhaustive review of the pertinent literature. I believe this article will raise the awareness of this common, and often overlooked, disease. Congratulations!

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The paper of Marie Halliez and André Buret on giardia duodenalis is an interesting well written and easy to follow paper. I have few comments regarding this paper. Regarding the post-infectious IBS section, I would specify: - that there is a relation between post-infectious IBS and psychological factors - that IBS is the consequence of brain-gut interaction disturbances - that there is a microbiota-brain-gut axis in the pathophysiology of IBS
