

Dear editor,

Thank you very much for providing us a peer review report. We have modified our manuscript according to your suggestions. Indeed, your valuable suggestions have greatly improved our manuscript. Once again, thank you for all your efforts in making our manuscript a better one, especially in this strange pandemic time we are all living with.

Editor: The authors did not provide original pictures. Please provide the original figure documents. Please prepare and arrange the figures using PowerPoint to ensure that all graphs or arrows or text portions can be reprocessed by the editor

Response: We have prepared the figures using PowerPoint. We have submitted all figures in two versions: as a JPEG and as PowerPoint (submitted separately from the manuscript as additional figure files)

Editor: PMID and DOI numbers are missing in the reference list. Please provide the PubMed numbers and DOI citation numbers to the reference list and list all authors of the references. Please revise throughout; For PMID and DOI numbers of references from English-language journals, please ensure there is a space between the PMID and DOI numbers in the square brackets

Response: We are sorry for these mistakes. All references have been modified accordingly. Some of the references do not have DOI or PMID and therefore such data is not provided.

Please see below a point to point response.

Reviewer

Thank you for appreciating our hard work. All your suggestions are well taken and we truly appreciate them. WE appreciate all your hard work and for helping us improve our manuscript.

Reviewer: The manuscript describes a Review of the viscoelastic tests in liver disease. The topic is within the scope of the WJG. (1) Classification: Grade C; (2)

Response: Thank you for appreciating our hard work.

Reviewer: The article is worth publishing however a minor English polishing as well as some stylistic editing is needed.

Response: Thank you. We did check the entire manuscript and we did find some stylistic errors which were corrected. All modifications are highlighted in red color. Regarding English polishing – the manuscript was double checked by a native speaker.

Thank you again for both your effort, which is kindly considered!
