Dear Prof. Ze-Mao;

Enclosed please find our revised manuscript entitled "The prevalence of colorectal neoplasms in young, average risk individuals: A turning tide between East and West" submitted for publication in the World Journal of Gastroenterology (Manuscript Number 25578).

The response to reviewers is keyed to changes in the text marked in boldface type. We thank the reviewers for their careful reading of the manuscript and helpful suggestions for its revision. We have related to all their comments including modifying the design and layout of the manuscript, completing several sections that were missing in the original version, and correcting the reference list to the requested format.

Please note that we have corrected a mistake that was made in the name of one of the authors (Ervin Santo was written as Irwin Santo) and we request that you modify the name in the published version as well.

Sincerely,

Nadir Arber MD, MSc, MHA
