COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is an very interesting paper about laparoscopic-endoscopic surgery for gastric submucosal tumor. In this manuscript, the authors analyzed 101 patients who underwent laparoscopic-endoscopic surgery for gastric submucosal tumor. The study design is very good. The data is well displayed and discussed. The references are updating, but 15 ref. are not enough. The authors can add the ref. to around 25. And some minor spelling corrections are needed.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Review on Manuscript ESPS NO. 4146 Title: Laparoscopic-Endoscopic Cooperative Surgery for Gastric Submucosal Tumor Authors: Wei-ming Kang, Jian-chun Yu, Zhi-qiang Ma, Zi-ran Zhao, Xin Ye, Qing-bin Meng In this manuscript, the authors discussed the safty and advantages of minimally invasive laparoscopic-endoscopic cooperative surgery for gastric submucosal tumor. About 101 patients were included in this study. The clinical data was well collected, and the surgical procedures of the patients were well described. Ref. are updating. Minor comments 1. If the surgical procedures can be described in to a figure, it will be more interesting. 2. Table 2 is not noted in the text, please note it in the text. 3. Editing is needed to get the publishing standard.
