Reviewer Comments:

Reviewer #1: It is an interesting - well written paper - dealing a case of an extremely preterm infant who had a peripherally inserted central venous catheter impacted in the vein. Authors describe the step - by - step efforts for removal, based on the minimus existing literature on this topic. I have nothing to comment.

Response: Thanks for the reviewer's comment. We are grateful to your reviewers for their interesting in our paper.

Science editor:

The authors should provide the signed Conflict-of-Interest Disclosure Form and Copyright License Agreement.

Response:

Thanks for the science editor's remind. We will upload the signed Conflict-of-Interest Disclosure Form and Copyright License Agreement.

Issues raised: (1) The authors did not provide the approved grant application form(s). Please upload the approved grant application form(s) or funding agency copy of any approval document(s);

Response:

Thanks for the science editor's suggestion. We will upload the approved grant application forms.

Issues raised: (2) The authors did not provide original pictures. Please provide the original figure documents. Please prepare and arrange the figures using PowerPoint to ensure that all graphs or arrows or text portions can be reprocessed by the editor.

Response:

We appreciated the science editor's suggestion. We will upload the original figure documents by using PowerPoint.

Company editor-in-chief: Before final acceptance, uniform presentation should be used for figures showing the same or similar contents; for example, “Figure 1 Pathological changes of atrophic gastritis after treatment. A: ...; B: ...; C: ...; D: ...; E: ...; F: ...; G: ...”.

Response:

We apologize for not using uniform presentation for figures. So we have revised the contents of the figures by using uniform presentation.

The title of the manuscript is too long and must be shortened to meet the requirement of the journal (Title: The title should be no more than 18 words).

Response:

We are so sorry that our title wasn't meet the requirement of the journal. We have revised the title to meet the requirement of the journal.

Finally, we have resolved all language issues in the manuscript and we will submit revised manuscript by the steps.
