

To whom it may concern:

This memo is to certify that the paper titled Subdural fluid collection rather than meningitis contributes to hydrocephalus after cervical laminoplasty: case report and review of the literature from Shanghai Province, China has been edited for language by MedSci, a company dedicated to helping international researchers publish their findings in the best English language journals possible.

Our International paper editing service is performed by a subject expert editor and approved by two senior editors. All our editors are native English speakers.

The certificate is being issued upon the request of the client. If you have any questions, please contact official pages (medsci.cn)

Signature of the editor representative:

Martin J. Booth