

Institutional Review Board Approval Form or Document

The study was conducted in accordance with the Declaration of Helsinki (as revised in 2013). Since the present study is a bioinformatics work that did not involve animal or human specimens, there is no requirement for ethical permission from our institution or an ethics number.