

Biostatistics statement

Title: Mediating effect of physical activity level between psychological distress and intimate relationship in stroke patients

The statistical methodology study for this report was reviewed by a member of the first

People's Hospital in Shangqiu City

Name:

Signature

Contact information: Email:

