Editors-in-Chief

World Journal of Gastroenterology

We wish to recommend an original research article for publication in your journal titled “Development of a Prognostic Model for One-Year Surgery Risk in Crohn’s Disease Patients: A Retrospective Cohort Study”, which was written by Jiayin Yao et al. This manuscript has not been published or presented elsewhere in part or in entirety and is not under consideration by another journal. This study design was approved by the appropriate ethics review board. There are no conflicts of interest to declare. We are appreciated to recommend the article to your journal.

Sincerely,

The Sixth Affiliated Hospital of Sun Yat-Sen University
