COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The review discusses an important topic that is mostly neglected in the clinical field. It has been well summarized but does include some grammatical errors that can be easily corrected. Some of the mistakes have been highlighted in the attached manuscript text, but it is advised that authors should carefully revise it before its re-submission.

COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

1. Need a informative figure mentioned about mechanism of DIAP. It is difficult to understand by the present style. 2. page 6: You mentioned that gallstone is the first and alcohol is the second cause of pancreatitis, but not described the information about the country. For example, alcohol is the first cause in Japan.
