SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This review discusses the in vivo and in vitro anti-oxidant activity of specific probiotics with respect to Inflammatory Bowel Disease. It also focuses on the various in vitro assays performed to study anti-oxidative activities of probiotics. This is a qualified manuscript. The references are up-to-date. The language is understandable with grammatical and syntax correct. The resolution of all the images should be improved.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

1 Title. Does the title reflect the main subject/hypothesis of the manuscript? It is suggested as "Probiotic treatment as supplemental therapeutic strategy for inflammatory bowel disease: its extent and intensity". 2 Abstract. Does the abstract summarize and reflect the work described in the manuscript? Yes. 3 Key words. Do the key words reflect the focus of the manuscript? No. It is suggested to choose one of "ROS" and "oxidative stress", which are similar. At the same time, delete "inflammation". 4 Background. Does the manuscript adequately describe the background, present status and significance of the study? The introduction is not sufficient to support their review. Actually, it is not suggested to use subtitles in Introduction section. 8 Illustrations and tables. Are the figures, diagrams and tables sufficient, good quality and appropriately illustrative of the paper contents? Do figures require labeling with arrows, asterisks etc., better legends? Yes. Nice draw. Please enlarge the font in the figures. 11 References. Does the manuscript cite appropriately the latest, important and authoritative references in the introduction and discussion sections? Does the author self-cite, omit, incorrectly cite and/or over-cite references? Yes. No. 12 Quality of manuscript organization and presentation. Is the manuscript well, concisely and coherently organized and presented? Is the style, language and grammar accurate and appropriate? The section of the review was not designed well. The subtitles in this review were unclear. With subtitle in introduction, it is hard to identify the main section in this review. On the other hand, on obvious discussion or conclusion section in this review. So please re-arrange the whole manuscript to make it clear.
